

Privacy Policy

At Quantum Care, we know your privacy is important and fully comply with the Data Protection Act 1998. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect and process data and what you can do about the way your personal information is used.

If you have any questions about how we handle your privacy, please contact us.

Information collected

The only personal information collected on the Quantum Care website is that which you give to us directly by submitting an enquiry, signing up for your newsletter or manually entering any other information into the website.

We will only use any personal information you send to us to deal with the enquiry or request you submitted. It will not be used for marketing purposes unless you submitted it to request

We also collect information automatically about your visit to the Quantum Care website through the use of cookies. For full details on this website's cookies, please see below.

Who is collecting your information?

Any personal information submitted to the Quantum Care website is submitted solely to Quantum Care unless stated otherwise.

Sharing your information?

Quantum Care will only share your personal information with other companies within our group, government bodies and law enforcement bodies. By providing us with your information you consent to it being used in this way.

Cookies

We collect information from your visit to our website through the use of cookies. You are not identifiable from cookies. These are temporary files stored on your computer which automatically record details of your use of the Quantum Care website. They also collect information such as the time, date and IP address. This allows us to improve our online service and make any changes necessary to make our website more easily accessible.

We also use cookies to give us demographic information about our website users such as interest and location data to improve our service offering and advertising. You are not identifiable from this type of cookie either.

The following table lists the use of cookies on the Quantum Care website:

Cookie Name	Purpose	More information
has_js	This is used to determine whether or not your browser can run JavaScript Expires when browser is closed.
Google Analytics _ga _gat _gid	These cookies are used to collect information about how visitors use our site. We use the information to compile reports and to help us improve the site. The cookies collect information in an anonymous form, including the number of visitors to the site, where visitors have come to the site from and the pages they visited. Subject Access Rights

We will take all reasonable and proportionate steps to ensure that any requests for access to any personal details are handled quickly and efficiently and we comply with the ICO's Code of Practice on Subject Access Requests.

What happens when you link to another site?

Our website links to other sites which we have no control over and are not covered by this Privacy Policy. We recommend that you take a look at the Privacy Policy of any new website before submitting personal information as we accept no responsibility for these websites.

Internet-based transfers

Given that the Internet is a global environment, using the Internet to collect and process personal information necessarily involves the transmission of information on an international basis. Therefore, by browsing the Quantum Care Website and communicating electronically with us, you acknowledge and agree to our processing of personal information in this way.

Unfortunately, the transmission of information via the internet is not completely secure. Although we will do our best to protect your personal information, we cannot guarantee the security of your information transmitted to any website; any transmission is at your own risk. Once we have received your information, we will use strict procedures and security features to try to prevent unauthorised access.

Changes to our Privacy Policy

Any material changes we may make to our privacy policy in the future will be posted on this page and, where appropriate, notified to you by email.
